BERLIN REPORTS HITS ON ENEMY DAMAGE TO THE DESTROYERS AT THAMES DOCKS BREAST CLAIMED

Berlin, Oct. 10.—(P.)—The German High Command said today that the "heaviest damage was inflicted on docks in the Thames bend" in London during an all-night raid which followed an incessant day attack.

Even before the High Command issued its daily communiqué fresh reports of airmen, favored by the weather, were reported pounding anew at England in daylight raids.

Informed sources declared that several hundred night fliers unloaded more than 200,000 pounds of explosives on London.

Reviewing action of the past 24 hours, the High Command reported:

Direct hits which destroyed hangars, barracks and grounded planes at St. Eval, Penrose and St. Merryn, among "several" airports attacked in central and southern England.

Sinking of two British merchantmen by submarine and several bomb hits on ships on a British merchant ship at sea, causing it to halt break into flames and list.

Bombing of the port of Cardiff, Wales, which caused fire.

The High Command dismissed British raids on German and German-occupied territory with the statement that the damage could be quickly repaired.

Ten British planes were said to have been destroyed yesterday while four German planes were reported missing.

Nazi sources charged that two German rescue planes were destroyed by English fighters as they sought to pick up fliers forced down at sea.

Sinking of French U-Boat is Announced

New York, Oct. 10.—(P.)—The German radio, in a broadcast heard here, said today the French Admiral at Vichy, France, had announced the loss of the French submarine Ajax.

It quoted British reports as saying the craft was sunk by British naval forces in the Gulf of Guinea, and the personnel of 63 landed at Free Town, Africa.

The Ajax, of 1,234 tons surface displacement, was one of the same type as the Perce which was sunk off Dakar, French West Africa.

England's Army, Navy and Air Force Losses Total 21,867 Dead, Missing and Captured

London, Oct. 10.—(P.)—Britain's army, navy and air force have lost total of 21,867 men dead, missing or captured and 16,210 wounded—altogether 38,077 casualties—since the war began, according to official lists released today for publication.

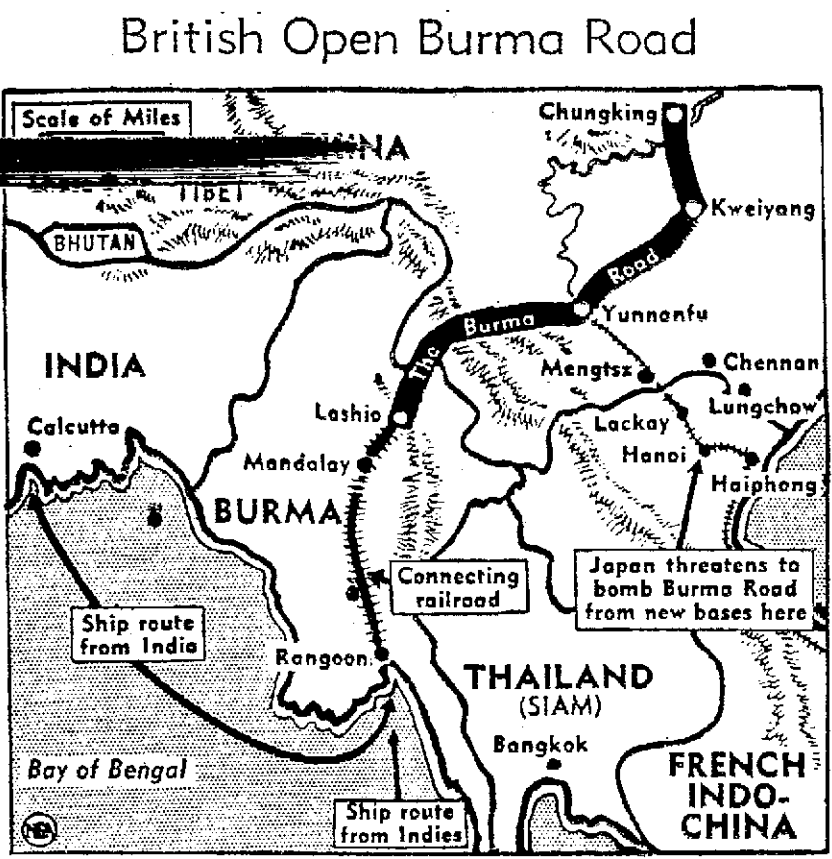

No one of the three services announced casualties so great as the British army, which lost 13,000 men killed and 13,000 wounded up to Oct. 5.

The service losses announced are:

A total of 8,725 killed and fatally wounded, 10,315 missing, 1,057 died, and 1,700 held prisoners by Germany and Italy, in addition to the names of 16,210 injured—already announced, or a casualty total of 38,077.

Despite the activity of the air force, it suffered least. Its announced total was 5,587. There were 22,179 army casualties and 10,011 in the navy.

The week's service reports showed a sharp reduction in casualties. There were fewer in all England than London alone suffered in its worst week or two.

Late Campaign Developments Bring Fresh Announcements of Transferred Allegiance

Willkie Appeals for New England Votes With Series of Scheduled Speeches in Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts

CHAIRMEN ARE BUSY

By the Associated Press

In another strenuous stretch of campaigning, Wendell L. Willkie appealed for New England votes today with a series of scheduled speeches in Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts.

The Republican presidential standard bearer hit the trail again after telling a demonstrative assembly at New Haven last night that there was need for revitalizing small businesses as the backbone of America.

While Willkie spoke in Connecticut, Attorney General Jackson took to the air waves from Washington with a speech asserting that the Republican party had nothing to offer America and that Willkie's campaign proved it.

DR. KNUBEL REELECTED BY UNITED LUTHERANS

Omaha, Oct. 10.—(P.)—The United Lutheran Church in America re-elected the Rev. F. H. Knubel president today for his 15th term after the former New York City pastor challenged the 1,500,000 members to assume support of the world's foreign mission work, dependent upon American Lutherans alone.

Dr. Knubel was first elected president in 1918 at the New York convention when three synods merged.

"If we turn from the opportunity we shall ourselves become anemic, bloodless," he told delegates to the 12th biennial convention.

"If with death we meet the necessity we shall be refreshed with the vigor of early Christians; the missionary impulse is a primary thrust of Christianity."

HOUSE RECESS STALEMATE IS STILL UNBROKEN

Washington, Oct. 10.—(P.)—Stalemate over the recess question, House Republicans and Democrats watched each other closely today for signs of a break which would permit them to go home for a few weeks before the November elections.

"It's a war of nerves," an increasing number of members complained. They protested that almost everyone, satisfied that all major legislation had been considered, was anxious to quit at least until next month.

Democrats wanted a long recess until November 15, but lacked the votes to swing it. Republicans, for the most part, also wanted to get away for the next few weeks. However, they could not get the Democrats to agree to their plan.

AIRLINER CRASH PROBE STARTS

Washington, Oct. 10.—(P.)—The Senate commerce committee today began preliminary work on an inquiry into the Lovettsville, Va., airliner crash last Aug. 31, which caused the death of Senator Landon (R-Minn.).

The committee was directed to inquire into reports that the senator was under investigation by the Department of Justice at the time of his death and that one or more agents of the department was aboard the same plane.

The Senate voted the $5,000 needed for the investigation late yesterday.

In connection with the Landon inquiry, the Senate was informed yesterday by J. Edgar Hoover, chief of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, that the two bureau employees who died in the Lovettsville disaster were not on the plane to investigate Landon.

Hoover wrote in a letter to Senator McCarran (D-Nev.) that Special Agent Joseph J. Pesci had taken passage en route to his first assignment at Chicago and Margaret L. Turner, a stenographer, was on her way to a vacation.

Belgrade, Yugoslavia, Oct. 10.—(P.)—Six German troops, flying the swastika banner, passed down the Danube river by Belgrade tonight. Yugoslav officials expressed the belief the troops were en route to Rumania. The steamers kept to midstream, but uniformed soldiers could be seen aboard from the shore.

COMMONS HAS DISCUSSION ON CONSULTATIONS

London, Oct. 10.—(P.)—The question of withholding war supplies from Japan and possibilities of American-British cooperation in the Pacific ocean are being discussed with the United States, R. A. Butler, undersecretary for foreign affairs, told the House of Commons today.

Butler avoided giving direct replies to numerous questions concerning the United States and Japan in an exchange with Colonel Josiah O. Wedgewood, who asked:

"What progress has been made in regard to British-American cooperation in the Pacific?"

Whether the Russian, Chinese and Netherlands governments were cooperating or being consulted.

"The question may rest assured that the importance of contact with friendly governments on matters of common interest is fully appreciated by his majesty's government," Butler replied.

"Is that consultation taking place at the present time in connection with the Pacific?" Wedgewood pursued.

Butler replied that "certain conversations have taken place which are of considerable importance."

JIMMY ROOSEVELT TO GO INTO TRAINING

Hollywood, Oct. 10.—(P.)—Another "Captain Roosevelt" — Jimmy, the President's eldest son — soon will join brother Elliott in active military service, but when he isn't busy training he'll keep an eye on his film interests.

Roosevelt, busy promoting "slot machine movies," is an officer in the 22nd battalion, Marine Corps Reserves, on "stand by" order for active duty.

Elliott Roosevelt recently was made a captain in the army air corps procurement division, stationed at Dayton, O.

Kitchen Revival in Warren Is Centering Around Original Recipe Sheets Distributed at Daily Sessions

SURPRISES NUMEROUS

There's a stir of excitement in the kitchen. The Little Woman is bustling about with the mysterious smile on her lips that proves she is "up to something."

A printed "school days" sheet, propped beside the mixing board, holds the secret of the bustle, the mystery, the new interest. Not poetry, but the Little Woman is translating it into a symphony of delicious flavor and fragrance that makes her family breathe deep in hungry anticipation.

What's it all about? The kitchen revival is centering around one of the original recipe sheets distributed at the Times-Mirror Cooking School, where new dishes are measured, mixed, baked or French-fried, while eager pupils look on and say "I can hardly wait to get home and try that."

The Times-Mirror's popular homemaking specialist, Mrs. Mabel Bowen, understands the feminine instinct for culinary creation. She knows that the successful cook is expressing a talent as great as any artist. It is an even greater gift that the other arts, in the estimation of this sympathetic food authority, for the expert cook

GREW CONSULTS WITH JAP CHIEFS

Tokyo, Oct. 10.—(P.)—U. S. Ambassador Joseph C. Grew conferred for two hours yesterday with Foreign Minister Yosuke Matsuoka, it was disclosed today. It was their second conference in three days.

Grew also conferred with Eiichi Ohashi, vice minister of foreign affairs.

Yakichiro Suna, foreign office spokesman, said both meetings resulted from a Foreign Office invitation. The spokesman declined to reveal the subject of the discussions but said it was "not startling."

The majority of the Americans here accepted calmly the official U. S. advice to leave the Orient. Families of members of the embassy staff and of naval officers were expected to remain.

Some missionaries planned to leave because of recent anti-foreign agitation.

RESERVE OF WOOL

London, Oct. 10.—(P.)—The British and United States governments have agreed that Britain will hold a reserve of wool in the United States to be available for purchase by the United States "in the event of an emergency," the ministry of supply announced today.

Dr. Clarence A. Dykstra, above, president of the University of Wisconsin, has been offered post as director of conscription by President Roosevelt. He is reported considering offer.

G. O. P. NOMINEE INSISTS AFFAIRS BEING BUNGLED

New London, Conn., Oct. 10.—(P.)—Wendell L. Willkie declared today that the Roosevelt administration had bungled both domestic and international affairs and therefore should not be entrusted with handling the country after the European war ends.

The Republican nominee, discussing the two-term tradition, said the only argument offered by the third-term supporters was that Europe is in a crisis.

"No man appreciates any more than I do the critical situation abroad," Willkie said. "No man understands more than I do the consequences on the United States, but let us think beyond that crisis."

"In my judgment, the present administration has been one of the greatest failures in bringing on that crisis. But let us assume that the war is over within six months. What is going to be the condition in Europe? There is bound to be inflation in Europe and competition with the United States by low-paid labor."

"Do you want this administration following the war to handle the domestic affairs of the United States and take it down the road to bankruptcy and lose every social gain that labor has made?"

"No," the crowd shouted.

"This administration has bungled foreign affairs just as it has bungled domestic affairs," continued Willkie, "and that is becoming apparent to everybody."

When Willkie's train pulled into New London a crowd packed around the railroad station was singing, "We Want Willkie in the White House."

Rep. Charles Halleck (R-Ind.), who placed Willkie's name in nomination at the Republican convention, introduced Paul Cornell, the party's senatorial candidate.

He presented Willkie, and the crowd set up a long shout. Chief of Police William Babcock estimated the attendance at 10,000.

The crowd at Westerly was estimated by police at 12,000, exceeding the city's entire population of 10,000. A one-hour holiday was declared, closing down all stores and factories.

MUSSOLINI HAS NOTHING TO SAY

Padua, Italy, Oct. 10.—(P.)—Premier Mussolini witnessed a great military demonstration on this historic plain today a show which some observers believed might be the prelude to a new Axis thrust—but refrained from any speech or hint of Axis intent.

It had been expected that if Duce might choose the occasion of his review of 20,000 young Fascist soldiers to deliver an address. The newspaper Il Piccolo called the parade "a prologue" to undisclosed events to come.

Delegations from semi-military Fascist type organizations in Spain, Hungary, Rumania and Bulgaria participated in the review in addition to a group of German Nazis.

Diplomatic representatives of the same five countries also were assembled in Padua to greet Il Duce on his arrival from nearby Bologna, where he inspected 22 battalions and 18-year old recruits and then witnessed a sham battle for the second time in two days.

A cheering crowd estimated at 200,000 persons hailed Mussolini.

GEN. DE GAULLE IS WELCOMED IN FRENCH COLONY

Leader of "Free Forces" Raises Standard at Duala, Cameroons, Africa, to Lead Movement to Carry On War Against Germany

SOLDIERS REVIEWED

Duala, Cameroons, Africa, with the De Gaulle Expedition, Oct. 9.—(Delayed.)—(P.) General Charles de Gaulle landed here today and raised his standard of the "Free French" forces on French soil for the first time since the French-German armistice.

De Gaulle stepped ashore from the gunboat Commandant Duboc which took part in the ill-starred attempt to land at Dakar.

He kissed Governor General Lecomte on both cheeks and then the two reviewed native soldiers and sailors and French troops of the Cameroons garrison.

The Cameroons decided some time ago to join De Gaulle's movement to carry on the war against Germany.

As the Commandant Duboc touched the pier, three ranks of negro troops snapped to attention. In front of them were grouped the governor general and his staff.

For a moment there was silence. (Turn to Page Fifteen)

GRENELL WORK IN LABRADOR TO BE CONTINUED

Charlotte, Vt., Oct. 10.—(P.)—Despite the death of Sir Wilfred Grenfell, the Grenfell Association planned today to continue his famed work of giving spiritual comfort and medical care to the fisher folk, Indians and Eskimos of Labrador.

Even before he died last Wednesday at the age of 75 years, the association had stated that "so long as hard-working people need the services it can give, the Grenfell Association hopes to carry on the work its founder started for the human beings who are our blood brothers." Grenfell had been under treatment for a heart condition.

While funeral plans were incomplete, family sources said his body probably would be cremated and the ashes taken to Labrador to be interred near St. Anthony's hospital near those of Lady Grenfell, who died two years ago.

Grenfell joined an expedition that sailed from London in 1892 aboard a 20-ton ketch, the Albert, fitted with a hospital ward and dispensary, to investigate conditions among the fishermen of Labrador and northern Newfoundland for the Royal National Mission to Deep Sea Fisheries.

So engrossed did he become with the work to be done there that he abandoned all thoughts of a London practice and stayed on the coast 42 years before retiring.

U. S. Warship Goes Aground At Groton

Groton, Conn., Oct. 10.—(P.)—The U. S. navy destroyer Roper, operating off shore in connection with maneuvers of submarines from the New London base, ran aground in the harbor here today near the plant of The Electric Boat Company.

Naval officers withheld all information concerning the grounding of the vessel in a shale bank along the Groton shore but issued a call for divers and salvage equipment at the submarine base.

An inspection of the craft was said to have led to a decision to make no attempt to pull her into deep water until high tide at 5:15 p. m.

The Roper was built during the World War. She is a 399-foot craft, with 1099 tons displacement and is listed in official ships' data "over age" Feb. 15, 1935.

GUFFEY SAYS FAITH IN AMERICA RESTORED

Cotatesville, Oct. 10.—(P.)—U. S. Senator Joseph P. Guffey told a Democratic party rally that "it was President Roosevelt who restored the people's faith in the American way of life when Wall Street was selling America short."

Guffey, campaigning for reelection, declared last night:

"It was such financial manipulators as Wendell Willkie, and Samuel Insull before him, who helped to destroy the faith of many Americans in their ability of their government to promote and protect the general welfare."

Former at Harrisburg, the executive council of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor (AFL) announced it had endorsed Guffey for reelection.

It had been expected that if Duce might choose the occasion of his review of 20,000 young Fascist soldiers to deliver an address. The newspaper Il Piccolo called the parade "a prologue" to undisclosed events to come.

Harrisburg, Oct. 10.—(P.)—The arrival of hundreds of 4-H Club members and college-student cattle judging teams began streaming into Pennsylvania's capital today, ready to demonstrate to National Dairy Show visitors how to appreciate a bull or produce a cheese souffle.

The annual exhibition, making its Pennsylvania debut, will open Saturday morning with the accent on youth.

Representing all but five states of the union, 107 state champion 4-H teams will engage in competition that starts at 9 a. m. Saturday and ends with the annual club dinner next Wednesday. About 50 of the teams are entered in the national dairy cattle contest, testing their judgment in ranking prize livestock selected from the 952 cattle assembled from all sections of the nation. At the same time, demonstration teams will show how to do various tasks involved in running a dairy farm or household. To the best will go national championship awards and $2,500 in scholarships, watches and other prizes.

CONFERENCE ON FOREIGN SITUATION

President Roosevelt Schedules Meeting With Secretary Hull and Under-Secretary Welles Presumably On Complications Abroad, as He Clears Desk Prior to Leaving on Trip Into Penn'a and Ohio

ADDRESS SATURDAY NIGHT NON-POLITICAL

Washington, Oct. 10.—(P.)—President Roosevelt scheduled a conference with Secretary Hull and Under-Secretary Welles today, presumably on the foreign situation, as he strove to clear his desk prior to leaving the capital tonight on a trip through Pennsylvania and Ohio.

Stephen Early, press secretary, said the state department chiefs had asked for the appointment.

Asked whether the United States and England were conferring on the troubled situation in the Far East, where Japan has announced an alliance with the European Axis, Early replied:

"I don't know. I think the president said some time ago that the discussions were almost continuous."

Referring to the radio address which Mr. Roosevelt is to make at 9 p. m. Saturday from his train at Dayton, O., Early said the president, "speaking to the entire hemisphere," would elaborate on the "all for one and one for all" idea.

"I have definite assurances that the speech will be non-political," Early continued.

He disclosed that a brief stop at Newton Falls, O., had been added to the itinerary. The president is to arrive there late Friday and, without leaving his train, view the site of a proposed powder plant alongside the Baltimore and Ohio railway.

TALK ELECTION EVE

New York, Oct. 10.—(P.)—The Democratic national committee announced today that President Roosevelt would address the nation in a radio broadcast election eve, probably from his Hyde Park home.

From other sources it was learned that the national committee has contracted for radio time for 10 p. m. to midnight (EST) on all major networks on the night before election, with the exception of a spot, "speaking to the entire hemisphere," would elaborate on the "all for one and one for all" idea.

"I have definite assurances that the speech will be non-political," Early continued.

He disclosed that a brief stop at Newton Falls, O., had been added to the itinerary. The president is to arrive there late Friday and, without leaving his train, view the site of a proposed powder plant alongside the Baltimore and Ohio railway.

CONFERENCE IS HELD BY STATE DEM. LEADERS

In an effort to encourage and assist county Democratic leaders in the conduct of their campaigns in this end of the state, State Democratic Chairman Meredith Meyers and State Campaign Chairman Luther A. Harr conferred yesterday in Warren with representatives of the party from the counties of Erie, Crawford, Forest, Mercer, Venango, Clarion, Elk, McKean, Potter, Cameron, Clearfield and Warren. The series of individual meetings were held at the Carver House throughout the day.

Dr. Harr and Mr. Meyers left for Johnstown to join the president's special train and accompany him to Pittsburgh, where he is scheduled to inspect defense preparations in that area.

In a prepared statement for the press, Dr. Harr said: "I have found complete unity of purpose not only in the twelve counties with which I have conferred today, but throughout the entire state. I feel that I can safely predict a 700,000 plurality for President Roosevelt and the entire ticket in Pennsylvania on November 5th."

DEMOCRATS OF COUNTY ATTEND ROUSING RALLY

A very enthusiastic and well-attended meeting of the Democratic county committee was held last night at the Roosevelt headquarters here.

Mrs. Lela Ross Kyle, sister of State Treasurer F. Clair Ross, candidate for auditor general, was present and spoke briefly in behalf of President Roosevelt and the entire Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania. She stated that it was her conviction that the people of the state were so fed up with the administration of "Little Arthur James" that they would turn a rousing victory to Roosevelt.

John F. Boland, Jr., of Sharon, candidate for member of congress from the twentieth congressional district, also addressed the committee members. Said Boland: "There is no use of my going into the Roosevelt program—you all know of the great humanitarian things that he has done. To repeat them would be to repeat the things he has done. On June 1, 1937, Mr. Jarrett was one of 44 to vote against relief appropriations, which clearly shows that Mr. Jarrett belongs to the party without a soul. He was one of six who voted against the Housing Authority bill. He was one of ninety-seven to vote against Wage and Hour legislation and, most important of all—the most important legislation in years before the congress, that of the conservation bill—Jarrett was not even in Washington—he was AWOL and the people don't yet know how he stands on the question."

Boland charged that Jarrett had been forced upon the people by the utility interests and drew the parallel between Jarrett and Willkie, who he stated, is also a representative of the same interests.

Herman Reinhold, a dirt farmer of 40 years experience and now chairman of the agricultural committee for the Democratic candidates in Pennsylvania, spoke in behalf of Roosevelt's aid to the farmers. Reinhold traced the history of agricultural legislation under the New Deal, which he said had been so good that even Mr. Willkie could not but promise to continue if elected.

Former Congressman E. H. Beshin also spoke.

The meeting was in charge of Attorney C. Henry Nicholson, Democratic candidate for the assembly, who received a very fine ovation when Mr. Boland referred to him as the next member of the assembly from Warren county, who, unlike his opponent, running for a fourth term, was taking the stump against a third term for President Roosevelt.

The meeting held last night in the South Street school under the combined auspices of the 6th and 8th ward Young Republican Clubs was attended by representatives from several other borough clubs, including delegations from the 3rd, 5th and 9th wards. W. Herbert Murphy and Arthur Langdon acted as co-chairmen of the meeting. Mr. Murphy called on R. E. Sires and W. S. Clark for impromptu speeches after which Allison D. Wade gave a brief address. The program also included sound motion pictures and a short quiz arranged by Mrs. Ann Thorpe and conducted by Arthur Langdon. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by a capable committee.

FIRE PREVENTION DEMONSTRATION

The science of fire fighting has undergone an abrupt change in the last few years. The change is one in which the fire department discharges its responsibility of keeping fire losses low by not only efficiently subduing flames but eradicating hazards in a program of prevention.

This program has been followed here with the firemen making regular inspections of buildings in the congested downtown areas. Their work has been greatly responsible for the small fire losses that this community has suffered.

In spite of these inspections and other precautions along with frequent admonitions fire will continue to break out requiring the services of the well-equipped department. Tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock in Pennsylvania avenue, between Second and Hickory, the public will be given an opportunity to witness a demonstration of the local apparatus, arranged by Chief Douglas Kropf as the closing event of Warren's observance of Fire Prevention Week.

This should prove interesting as well as instructive to young and old, and every citizen should be on hand to see the local "smoke eaters" demonstrate hose lines, nozzles for hand lines, cellar pipes and distributors, as well as the knots used by firemen in rescue work and hoisting equipment.

TO WHEEL

Any persons who has had occasion to be in the vicinity of any one of the schools in the borough while classes are in session would not have to be told that the bicycle is more popular today than ever before in its history. Around every building leaning in rows will be found scores of "bikes" owned by students who use them for transportation in getting to and from the educational institutions. As a matter of fact a total of 1,210 have been registered in the last two years at Police Headquarters.

No less an authority than the Federal Census Bureau says more people are riding the vehicle of the sprocket and handlebars than since the day just about 100 years ago when a Scottish blacksmith named Kirkpatrick MacMillan applied driving levers to an old bone-shaking contraption called a celeripede.

Last year, the Census Bureau says, 1,252,029 bicycles were manufactured in the United States. Their value is placed at $22,449,000. That total was higher than the previous record which has stood from 1899, at the height of the horse and buggy days, when 1,182,691 bicycles were built.

More adults are riding bicycles for pleasure and exercise, and at a time when we place an increased premium on physical fitness, that's important.

Nazi bombers continue to fly over England and inflict untold damage; the RAF aviators take a trip over France and Germany and blow up Berlin. Just what is being accomplished is difficult to understand. It is certain that both capitals, London and Berlin, are suffering greatly, but the sum total of the whole thing cannot be estimated from censured news dispatches.

A Warren chapter of the "Bundles for Britain" movement has been formed, and one of the nice things about the activity is that it provides an agency for helping war victims that will not conflict with any other service, and about the only qualification for membership is interest and a willingness to work.

Advance information on the Players Club offering "Margin for Error" showing at the Warren Club tonight and Friday evening seems to justify the suggestion that lovers of stage plays should not fail to attend either of the two performances.

Don't get impatient about the traffic on the street department is getting around as fast as possible.

It's seldom that you find a rock as heavy as who is also wreckless.

At This Point—

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK—Quick now—and no guessing which is stronger, heredity or environment? We don't know, and maybe this won't get us anywhere, but during a visit with Bette Davis the other day we saw a jug of cider and a box of big red apples on her table. . . . Even ten years in Hollywood couldn't get New England out of her.

Here is the sad story of Captain Eugene LaBarre of the N. Y. Police department. The captain also is conductor of the World Fair and New York police bands. After releasing 18 hours with his hand for the big Police show at Madison Square Garden, he strolled across the fair grounds and got into his car, which was parked on the side of the road. Hitched to the windshield-wiper was a police ticket for over-parking.

Another traffic offender of the week was Doris Dudley, the blond actress, who was due to go on the air for a "Meet Mr. Meek" broadcast and had only a few minutes to get there. When the cop finally heeded her car into the curb he got off his motorcycle, took off his gloves, stroled over and said bluntly "What's your name?" She told him. Instantly he brightened.

"Aren't you really going to eat me alive?" asked Doris merrily.

"Not this time," he replied, "my sister is your cook."

THIS started out to be a column about Bette Davis but it seems to have trailed off into anecdotes. We're apologizing and slipping right back to Miss Davis pronto, the reason being that she impresses us as being a very determined person. The way she shakes her hands is impressive. She really shakes your hand. The way she moves through a crowd is also impressive. When you see her start from one side of a room for the other you know she's going to get there. She isn't a young woman who is easily dissuaded.

An example of this innate confidence in her convictions, which sometimes runs counter to the convictions of her employers, is to be found in a play that she bought a couple of years ago. Miss Davis read the play, liked it, and saw great possibilities in it for herself, either as a stage presentation or a motion picture.

But her studio, Warner Bros., didn't share her enthusiasm. It attempted to dissuade her. Finally the studio agreed to permit its production on Broadway (with some other actress) with this provision: If it clicked as a stage play, Bette could then portray it on the screen.

IT DIDN'T click. It opened on Broadway under the title of "The Woman Under the Influence" and after a week, it closed. It ran about a week. That seemed curious for the idea as a film, but Bette still thinks otherwise. She thinks it would make a superlative movie, or even a play. And maybe she's right—if she played the leading role. The quality of performance that went into "Of Human Bondage" could not just about anything over.

This eastern vacation, now in its sixth week for Miss Davis, has been one of frequent commuting between her farm at Franconia, N. H., and Broadway. Her escort to all the new shows and the night clubs has been her good friend and ex-husband.

Interesting Items Taken From the Warren Evening Times

In 1920

The auto races at the Fair Grounds Saturday afternoon attracted a crowd of almost 2,000. The free for all stock car event proved to be the fastest race in history of the local track. Paul Brown in his Studebaker finished first; Charles Brown in a Lexington, second, and Lyle Schuler in an Essex, third.

In the rifle match held by the Warren Rifle Club Saturday F. A. Keller broke the range record with a score of 372 in the marksmen's match. F. O. Peterson was a close second with a score of 356.

Excavating for the proposed new drop for the water to be erected on Lexington avenue, opposite the ball park, will start this morning and it is the purpose to prosecute the work of construction vigorously until completed.

The Deernom Club will hold an outing Saturday afternoon and will enjoy a chicken barbecue at the country home of H. L. Greer and on the river road.

Miss Anna Rockwell will entertain the members of her Sunday school class this evening at a half after six o'clock dinner at the Woman's Club.

Merle Graham, accompanied by that irresistible smile, left this morning for Cleveland to witness the ball game.

In 1930

The following have been placed in nomination for officers of the American Legion: Commander, C. A. Struble; Lieutenant, Buehler; Service commander, William E. Yeager; Walter E. Draheim, Jr., vice commander; Melvin G. Keller, finance officer; W. H. Cannon, chaplain; Marshall S. Hansen; historian; Archie D. Black; sergeant at arms; Louis Smith; Harold Hampson; adjutant; C. Willard Smith; Donald McComas; trustee; Everett Eddy; T. H. Milneus.

The four officers and directors of the Warren County Humane Society, Miss Kate Hazeltine, Mrs. Victor McAlpin, Carl Rogers and Watts N. Davis, have returned from the national convention held at Niagara Falls.

The Goodyear blimp, Defender, passed over the borough this morning shortly before eleven o'clock and attracted considerable attention.

The indoor golf game has now taken hold in the smaller communities of Warren county. Mr. Evan, proprietor of the Winter Garden course at Sheffield has announced that he will open his course next week.

Thus far nothing has been done to assure a big time for Warren on Halloween night and the event will probably pass quietly.

STORIES IN STAMPS

Australia's Platypus Is Nature's "Missing Link"

IT has a bill and feet like a duck, fur like an otter, a tail like a beaver, legs like a reptile and a poison sac like a snake—that is the platypus, Nature's greatest living freak, pictured on the 1938 Australian stamp above. Strict laws protect this "eighth wonder" of the animal kingdom, found only in Australia.

The platypus is about two feet long, weighs about four pounds. It lives on land and in water, but will drown if submerged more than 10 minutes. The young are hatched from eggs, resembling a reptile, but suckled like a mammal. The female sits on a nest, deep in a burrow, during a two-weeks' hatching period. The platypus sleeps erect on its haunches, with long bill resting on its chest, like an old man's beard. The curious animal feeds mostly on worms, tadpoles, larvae and other aquatic life. Several of the animals have been kept alive in captivity, and detailed studies of their habits have been made.

The poison fangs are most unusual. These are located on the back feet. When attacked, the platypus strikes, ejecting a poison that will cause serious illness to a human victim.

A Washington Daybook

By JACK STINNETT
WASHINGTON — Capital chatter: Census figures recently released put Washington, D. C., 37th in the list of states in the matter of population. That leaves 12 whole states which haven't as many people as the District, and makes more laughable than ever that legislative quirk which doesn't permit residents of the District to vote, to have representatives in either chamber of Congress, or to govern themselves. The District population exceeds the combined populations of Delaware, Wyoming and Nevada. These states, together, have six senators, three representatives, and nine electoral votes for President and Vice President. But the District can't even elect its own dog-catcher.

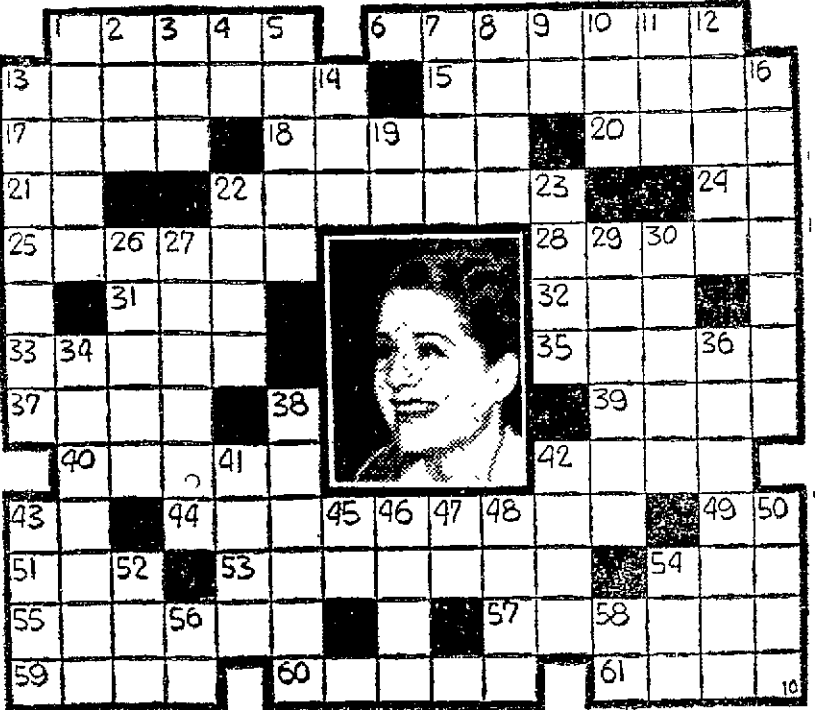

I'm not trying to start anything, but the same blueprints that served as model for the 1936 inaugural stands will be used in 1940. The secret came out the other day when the joint congressional committee in charge of inaugurations told David Lynn, capitol architect, to get busy. That told Mr. Lynn on the spot. Should he build Roosevelt stands or Willkie stands? Being something of a philosopher and nothing of a politician, Mr. Lynn got out his 1936 plans, dusted them off, and decided they would do . . . in any event. The '36 stands were uncovered, provided accommodations for 17,000 persons. President Roosevelt approved of them four years ago, so Mr. Lynn, without even looking at the national polls or holding a moist finger in the political wind, figures he couldn't possibly be more than half wrong.

Here's the story about Rep. Sam Rayburn's gavel. It was given him six years ago by two young men who made it in a Dallas, Tex. high school. When it was presented to Mr. Rayburn, he expressed his gratitude and added that he would use it when he became Speaker of the House. The late Henry Rainey was then Speaker and there were 13 representatives in point of service (always an important matter in selection of the Speaker) between him and Rayburn. But Mr. Rayburn did become Speaker of the House, and he was rapped for order on his first day in the Speaker's chair, he was swinging the gavel which six years ago he promised Charles and Clara Bates would be used for that purpose. Incidentally, the Bonham, Texas, representative is now the third ranking member of the government (he outthinks the cabinet members, the chief justice of the supreme court and the vicars of all states), which, with Vice-President Garner back in town gives Texas something of an edge in ranking around here.

Don't think there was anything funny about that resolution of Senator Thomas of Oklahoma calling for a national survey of air-raid shelter possibilities. The Senator's telegrams to 26 governors and 17 mayors of coastal and border states and cities have brought a swamp of approving replies. And now it leaks out that the War department will use soon with a pamphlet on how to prepare bomb shelters and air raid warning systems. The pamphlet will be preceded by a statement or foreword explaining that it is not meant as even a hint that there is any likelihood of any city being attacked from the air . . . but that this is just part of our defense program.

Many Cooperating in Promotion of Season Ticket Sales for Clare Tree Major Plays

The Community Council P. T. A. is meeting with fine cooperation on every hand in the conduct of its annual season ticket sale for Clare Tree Major plays, the first of which will be seen here on November 4.

John G. Rossman, superintendent of borough schools, has aided in notification of parents, and H. L. Blair, superintendent of schools in the county, has offered assistance in distributing letters to rural teachers and in the placing of posters about the county. The council will hold its regular meeting at two o'clock next Wednesday afternoon at the Y. W. C. activities building, when judges for the children's poster contest will be named and other final details arranged.

Parents in Warren and surrounding towns are again reminded by Mrs. Guy McCloskey, council president, that only season tickets are to be sold for the three plays offered this year. This action is made necessary because of the limited seating capacity of the high school auditorium, where the plays are given. It is very necessary that rural sales be reported to the general play chairman, Mrs. Alan Templeton, in order that seats may be reserved for the children who must come a distance.

Productions scheduled for this year are "Hans Brinker or the Silver Skates" on November 4, "The Secret Garden" on January 20 and "Alice in Wonderland" on April 7. Most children are familiar with the story of Hans Brinker and his sister, Gretel, written by Mary Mapes Dodge, and Mrs. Major's dramatization contains several exciting skating scenes in which the young principals compete for the prized silver skates.

"The Secret Garden," coming on January 20, is Frances Hodgson Burnett's famous story of the little girl from India, Mary Lennox, and of Colin Craven, whose surname is symbolic of his state of mind. Mrs. Major believes that the war-mad world needs a "Secret Garden" today, as it never has before, where neither blitzkrieg, bombs nor blackout can exist; where fear, hate and selfishness are unknown quantities.

Hollywood producers pay fabulous prices for modern best sellers, but a greater sum of money was paid for Lewis Carroll's original manuscript of "Alice in Wonderland" than for any other book of fiction ever written. In the Clare Tree Major performance which will be seen here on April 7, costumes worn by the cast are replicas of the drawings of Sir John Tenniel which illustrated Carroll's book when it appeared on July 4, 1865.

Miss Marguerite Green, children's librarian at the Warren Public Library, is telling these three popular stories to the school children this month, so that they may be more familiar with the stories to be presented on the stage by the Children's Theatre actors.

Lucille Silvis Is Wed to R. L. Heath

Tidioute, Oct. 10—The marriage of Miss Lucille Silvis daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Silvis, of Johnsonburg, and Robert L. Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Heath, of this place, was solemnized Saturday afternoon at two o'clock in the Johnsonburg Methodist church, the bride's father officiating.

Miss Adeline Black played an organ recital prior to the ceremony and Mrs. LaVerne Stewart sang.

The bride wore white satin and a finger tip veil of tulle. Her arm bouquet was of dark red roses and small white chrysanthemums. She was attended by her sister, Miss Catherine Silvis, who wore rose taffeta and matching headdress and carried yellow roses and white chrysanthemums.

Dr. E. A. Larson, of Meadville, was Mr. Heath's best man. Miss Doris Daley, in pale green net, and Miss Betty Kifer, in pastel blue net, were the ushers.

A wedding dinner was served at noon in the church parlors and a reception was held at the bride's home. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Heath, Mrs. Guy Courson, Russell Anderson, Mrs. Mike Merkle, Miss Ruth Merle, Tidioute; Mr. and Mrs. W. Ehrhart, Miss Laura and Billy Ehrhart, Mr. and Mrs. Ed S. son, "Titusville"; Dr. E. A. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schwartz, Meadville; Mrs. LaVerne Stewart, Smethport; Miss Lucille Frost, Kane; Mrs. Clyde Dinwiddie, Mrs.

Helen Anderson, Miss Virginia Anderson, Ridgway.

The bride is a graduate of the Clarion State Teachers College and has taught for several years in the East Kane school. Mr. Heath was graduated from Jamestown Business College and is now employed as an accountant for the Chrysler Motor Company in Meadville. They are now on a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., and through the southern states.

Wilksburg Girl's Engagement Is Told

The engagement of Miss Sarah Mildred Haines, of Center street, Wilksburg, and Alden Hoover Ryan, of Washington, D. C., has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Mabel Richards Haines. No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Fine Arts Department of Carnegie Institute of Technology and is a member of the Alpha Kappa Psi sorority. She is the daughter of Dr. Franklin Gregg Haines, of this city.

The prospective bridegroom was educated in Switzerland, at Oberlin College and the University of Iowa, where he received his doctor's degree and was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi honorary fraternity. Dr. Ryan, who is the son of Mrs. Arthur C. Ryan, of Washington, D. C., is in the research laboratory of the United States Navy.

PATTERN 4506
by ANNE ADAMS

Distinguished style . . . good, slimming lines . . . and enriching details are what a smart mature woman demands in her clothes. And that's exactly what Anne Adams offers in Pattern 4506. The graceful embroidered leaf motifs that frame the V-neck are done from a transfer pattern included with the style, and easy directions for their making are given with the Sewing Instructor. The long double panels down the front work miracles for your figure. And softness is held through the bustline by shirring at the shoulders and gathers above the waist. Both the short and three-quarter length sleeves have gathered-in fullness. Try this frock in rich, heavy crepe or sheer wool.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN
Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are giving you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. You may be suffering from tired kidneys. The kidneys are the body's way of taking excess acids and poisons out of the blood. They help your body get rid of about 9 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisons build up in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling in ankles, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes tell you there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait. Ask your doctor for Dr. Doan's Pills. Used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

VOCATION WORK BEING PLANNED AT YOUNGSVILLE

Youngsville, Oct. 9.—At the meeting of the Youngsville school board held this week plans were discussed concerning vocational courses to be offered to adults by the vocational department of the Youngsville school, namely agriculture, with Robert Albright, supervisor, and some form of home economics work under Miss Oetroski, supervisor of this department. Those interested in these subjects should consult one of the above supervisors.

The board also plans to build up the orchestra by helping in the purchase of some instruments. The board decided previously on the purchase of two stokers for the school system. These are soon to be installed.

The board, in compliance with a request from state officials, decided to close school on Constitution Day, Oct. 16th.

Announcement was made that Halloween stunts of interest to the community in the form of a school party would take place this season with a party for the grade children on Wednesday evening, Oct. 30th, and stunts a little different than ever before would be presented by the junior and senior high school group on the evenings of Oct. 31 and Nov. 1. National education week will be observed in November.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
Youngsville schools today are observing Fire Prevention Week by a special assembly with the speakers fire chiefs of Youngsville and Warren.

A questionnaire in regard to fire prevention is being sent to the parents of children. This will contain suggestions as to the care which should be taken to prevent fire.

BRIEFS
The American Legion Auxiliary was pleasantly entertained at a one o'clock tureen dinner at the home of Mrs. Inez Rudolph Warren. The Youngsville Boy Scouts request all their friends to save papers, magazines and paper cartons. They will make their first collection this season next Saturday.

Fred Martin, of Olean, and some friends were weekend visitors at the Frank Martin home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Sandberg, of Wrightsville, were visiting friends recently in their home neighborhood in the Brokenstraw valley. A neighborhood party and shower was held Tuesday evening for Mrs. G. H. Kroehn, of Second street.

"Shoots" War for You from Sandbag Fort

To snapshot modern warfare, you've got to get right out where the bombs are exploding and the shrapnel and shell fragments falling down. He's H. P. Andrews, NEA Service-Air News picture staff cameraman, whose war photos appear in this newspaper, in his "grandstand seat" atop the Dover cliffs. Protected by sandbags and a steel helmet, he's on the alert for an aerial dogfight.

Attention, future draftees. Photo above gives you a preview of the 54 pounds, 8 ounces of regulation army equipment you'll be lugging for a year if your number is called. That's not all, either. For Private First Class Harold L. Cambell, of Copper Hill, Tenn., is pictured above without the seven-pound overcoat that's part of regulation winter wear.

HIGHWAY GROUP Holds Meeting at Wellsboro

More than 200 persons attended an annual meeting of the Roosevelt Highway Association, held yesterday at Wellsboro. Those present were: O. A. Pressel and H. W. Correll. During the business meeting, officers of the association were re-elected.

A demand for use of motorist's taxes only on roads, and the improvement of important traffic arteries, such as the Roosevelt Highway, was made in resolutions passed during the meeting.

Citing the importance of auxiliary roads for peace-time use and military operations, the resolution called attention to the fact that the present sub-standard condition of Pennsylvania's highways would not exist if all special taxes paid by motor vehicle operators were used for highway improvements.

The division of road funds to other purposes was opposed and the legislature was requested to adopt measures permitting a vote on a constitutional amendment which would hold the motor fund for its intended purpose, road improvements and maintenance.

Commenting on the association's action, Paul Gleason, president, said: "The Roosevelt Highway is one of the most important east and west highways in the state. Yet, many sections of it are in a deplorable state and modern in character. This situation affects the general public along the route as well as the motorist who drives over the road. Many people fail to realize that safe modern highways create additional business for hundreds of our citizens."

"Adequate highways have proven their military value in Europe and we should not be caught napping here in America. The solution to this problem lies in using motor revenues for roads only and in the adoption of a balanced road program based on the State Highway Planning Survey."

POLITICAL FORUM

Articles appearing in this department are furnished by representatives of the respective parties in Warren county and are not intended to reflect the views or opinions of the publisher.

REPUBLICAN

The New Deal has followed one path which, through the maze of inconsistencies and conflicting words stands out clear and straight against the murky background, this is the path to dictatorship. Every act of the New Deal has had one unifying thread, the effort to gain control under the cause of regulation. The New Deal has deliberately sought to stifle private enterprise, to make the American economy so weak that in desperation free men would yield to government in order that essential functions might continue.

There was one mighty obstacle in this path, the American Constitution and the Supreme Court whose duty it was to interpret that document. So the Supreme Court had to be changed. The proposal to pack the court was not made until the president had been safely re-elected. It was the first "must" measure of Roosevelt's second administration. With the New Deal in its pocket the president hoped to accomplish its aim in short order.

But the march to power was slowed down because the American people through its representatives, rose in defense of its constitutional liberties. The president was forced to wait until vacancies on the court provided him with a means of appointing staunch New Dealers to carry on the executive will.

It has taken longer than the New Dealers hoped, to disrupt the system of free enterprise in America. America the richest country in the world has been able to call on her reserves to withstand the continued waves of spending inaugurated by the New Dealers to whom bankruptcy holds no terrors. The path of control through national bankruptcy has proved more difficult than the New Dealers at first assumed.

There remains one sure and rapid way in which the New Dealers can seize control. That way is by plunging America into war. For them the totalitarian control that goes with modern warfare holds no more of terror than national bankruptcy. Indeed it is what they most desire. Here would be the most plausible excuse of all for absolute dictatorship, here is the emergency beside which all the other faked "crises" pale into insignificance.

However, between the New Dealers and their realization of power, lies a presidential election. Their leader must be re-installed. This means an assault upon the Third Term tradition which has governed the acts of self-seeking men for a hundred and fifty years. So the New Deal campaign plays around this issue, seeking to disparage it as the notion of old fashioned conservatism, to brush aside in a carefully nourished defense hysteria the record of the past seven years.

The New Deal is working not so much for defense as for control of industry, just as, in the past it has worked for control rather than recovery. The New Deal cannot assure recovery, adequate defense nor peace. It can assure absolute control of business, and through business, of the life of every man.

DEMOCRAT

For a long time the big fly in the ointment of the Republican non-innocence has been organized Labor. It has caused him, and his Old Guard Field Marshals more pains than all the other features of the situation put together.

Why should this be true? The reason is obvious. They know that the New Deal, under President Roosevelt, is the only administration that has really done something for Labor. True, Republican candidates for office have paid lip service to labor. They have made promises at election time. Some of them have even come up from labor's own ranks, manipulating labor organizations for their own ends—like that supreme example of intellectual befuddlement, Senator James Davis of Pennsylvania. They have made sonorous speeches about the cooperation of labor and capital, rich with drippy saccharine sentiment that seems to be an exclusively Republican prerogative. But after the election was over and they were well-seated in their comfortable Washington chairs, they mechanically forgot about Labor. The fact is the Republicans, in all their long history, have consistently blocked and impeded the advance of labor toward its reasonable objectives. They have never made one single move to help it.

Mr. Willkie knows this. The Old Guard Field Marshals know it. Furthermore, they know that labor knows it. On October 3 they invaded Pittsburgh. What would they say about labor? Would they defend the past attitude of their party? Would they promise definite help? Would they condemn the Wagner Act? Or would it be just more boob-greasing oratory?

Well, October 3 is past. Mr. Willkie has spoken. And what did he say?

He did not attempt to justify his party's past labor record. That was canny, because he knew it could not be justified. He declared he "stood with Abraham Lincoln" in saying that labor should have priority to capital. Modest fellow. Get the labor friends—"Willkie and Lincoln."

He endorsed the Wagner Labor Relations Act. But he denied that the New Deal was responsible for its enactment because it had been "a long time in the making." That was sheer falsehood, and he knew it. If the Republican Party believed in the principles of the Wagner Act, why didn't they pass it during their twelve long years of power from 1920 to 1932? He said the Republicans would administer it better, yes they would—administer it in a way which would amount to its nullification.

He endorsed the principles of woman and child in America. Government control is not democracy, nor is it liberalism no matter how often the New Dealers shout that it is.

There is only one way to stop the New Deal only one way to stop the trend toward dictatorship and war, that way is the free exercise of the ballot on November 5th.

SNOW FENCE IS MANUFACTURED AT SHEFFIELD

Sheffield, Oct. 10.—Representatives of the Illinois Wire and Manufacturing Company, Joliet, Ill., yesterday set up at the C. P. L. Co. mill here one of their portable, snow-fence manufacturing units and today placed the unit in operation.

The unit will be here for a period of two to three weeks and will operate 24 hours per day, employing a crew of 10 men, 7 of whom are local residents.

The snow-fence to be manufactured here has been contracted for by the Pennsylvania Department of Highways, annually for the past several years. The second largest purchaser of snow-fence in the United States Minnesota highway department is first.

The wood lath for the red-painted, finished product more or less familiar to winter-time users of Pennsylvania highways, has been purchased from the local lumber company. The lath is four feet long, 2 inches wide and about 1/4 inch thick. About 257 lath are required to make 100 feet of fence, the lath being wired together at intervals of 2 and 1-2 inches.

The durable, galvanized wire used in the product is purchased from a wire manufacturing concern at Johnstown.

All of the fence manufactured in Sheffield will be delivered to highway department depots in this district of Pennsylvania, C. W. Peterson, of Joliet and manager of operations here, said.

CAR DAMAGED

Melbourne Hedvall, this place, escaped unharmed early Wednesday morning when his car left the Roosevelt highway on the curve just west of the Highway Garage at the western end of town and crashed into a guardrail. Hedvall was travelling east and the car ran off the right side of the highway. The machine, a light sedan, was towed to the nearby garage. Damage to the car was estimated at $150.

TOY MAN TALKS

Jarvis Rockwell, of Kane, an official of the Hoigate Toy Manufacturing Company, Kane, was guest speaker at the noonday luncheon meeting of the local Rotary Club held Tuesday in Cedarof Hall. The toy industry and in particular his own firm, which, he said, creates more than 100 different toys, was his topic.

There were 17 present at the meeting, the business session being in charge of C. H. Whittaker, president.

minimum wages and maximum hours. If that, too, was Republican belief, why did it have to wait upon a Democratic administration to be enacted into law? Thin stuff, Mr. Willkie!

Then he returned to his favorite theme, enunciated in Detroit, for a "conference" to solve the economic problems of the country. Another conference! As if there had not been conferences without end, big conferences, little conferences, conferences that talked and talked and talked; then adjourned. What this country needs is leadership, not conferences. And that is what Mr. Roosevelt is giving it.

The rest of it was sheer oratory of the familiar Willkie pattern. A rosy picture of labor and capital nibbling cream puffs at the same table, sipping pink lemonade from the same straws. Alfred P. Sloan and John L. Lewis mutually scratching each other's backs the while the band plays "Annie Laurie" and "Comin' Thru the Rye." But labor wants something more than oratory and distortion of facts. They did not get it at Pittsburgh.

YOU CAN'T GO WRONG ON VENDOL SAYS WELL-KNOWN FARMER'S WIFE

If your troubles come from constipation or need of a mild kidney diuretic action, don't delay trying famous medicine.

MRS. FLORENCE HINSDALE

"I don't know exactly how far back it was that I began to notice my kidneys were acting slowly and that constipation was a daily annoyance and made my stomach feel upset and quivery, but a few weeks ago I started taking Vendol and the little Vendol laxative tablets and they gave marvelous relief," says Mrs. Florence Hinsdale, who lives on Route 1, Gerry New York (near Jamestown).

"Vendol worked easily and pleasantly to relieve my constipation and my kidneys acted more freely and along with this relief came relief from gas, sour stomach, heartburn, indigestion, acid risings and that quivery feeling in my stomach."

"I also noticed with relief from constipation that the dizzy spells, bad taste in my mouth and headaches ceased to bother me."

"You can't go wrong on Vendol."

If your troubles are such as can be relieved by a good laxative or mild diuretic action on the kidneys so, my advice is to try it yourself and see."

There is only one Vendol, and it comes in 3 sizes for your convenience. Larger bottles are the most economical. Sold at leading druggists, recommended especially by Miller's Cut Rate Drug Store.

Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Smedley and daughter, Miss Joyce, of 110 Coneywango avenue, left today for Philadelphia, where Dr. Smedley will attend the convention of the Pennsylvania Osteopathic Society.

NINETY ATTEND FIRST MEETING ON WAR RELIEF

In response to the call for interested persons to attend a public meeting and learn of the purposes and plans of the new Warren unit of Bundles for Britain, about 90 gathered in the gymnasium of the Y. W. C. A. activities building Wednesday evening.

Miss Gene Alden Walker was elected chairman, with Mrs. J. W. A. Luce as secretary and Holgar Blumquist as treasurer.

Committee chairmen were appointed as follows: Mrs. Melvin Keller, knitting; Mrs. Hugh R. Logan, sales; Mrs. Lyle N. Schuler, publicity; Mrs. E. P. Wroth, general chairman of garments; Mrs. Otto Peterson, new garments; Miss Thelma Prendergast, assistant; Mrs. E. E. Koehly, used garments.

The following were then named by Mrs. Hugh Logan as a committee on headquarters selection: Mrs. Harry Logan, Mrs. Clare Cray, Mrs. J. E. Blair, Mrs. E. P. Wroth, Mrs. W. H. Wright, Miss Gene Alden Walker, Mr. Blumquist, Mrs. Harold C. Warren and Mrs. Luce.

The second floor of the United Refining Company office was chosen as headquarters and permission was granted by the American Legion to use its game room in Pennsylvania avenue west for two hours each day as a receiving station for bundles. Eventually it is hoped that a number of such stations will be established around town. Girl Scouts of the newly organized service bureau of the local council have offered their cooperation in deliveries and collections.

It was announced that Mrs. Harry Logan will give a tea at the Woman's Club on October 20, with a silver offering to be taken; also that Mrs. Wendell Phillips will sponsor a bake sale to raise funds. The response shown at last night's meeting was most gratifying to those at the head of this new movement, which has a threefold purpose: Providing knitted sweaters, socks and other articles for British soldiers, supplying clothes and shoes for families of these soldiers, and raising money for buying surgical instruments and hospital supplies. It was stressed again that this work will not interfere or compete with that of the Warren County Red Cross Chapter.

ROLL CALL FOR BOY SCOUTS IS BEING PLANNED

Commissioners of the Warren County Boy Scout Council met last night to discuss final plans for the first annual roll call and inventory of troops. The entire nation is taking part in the roll call in an effort to bring all troops up to capacity and take stock of their strength and ability to be of service to their communities.

All commissioners last night received rosters of the Scouts in each troop which they are serving. It will be their job during the next five weeks to visit each troop, conduct the roll call, correct addresses and telephone numbers and secure from each troop the information on the amount of actual camping each boy has had during the calendar year of 1940. At the same time the roll call is conducted each commissioner will make a brief check on Scout uniforms to see that all insignia is properly placed. This is in the nature of a service to troops.

Following the roll call each commissioner will then meet with the troop leaders, including Scoutmaster assistants and all troop committee members, where an analysis will be made of the troop going over its entire program, the training record of leaders and all phases of the operation of a Scout troop. This is being done in an effort to find out how the council may better serve troops. Each troop will be encouraged to fill all leadership vacancies and to increase its membership as far as is consistent with the number of leaders it has.

It is anticipated that next month with correct addresses and phone numbers on hand a plan will have been developed for the quick assembly of Scouts in their own communities for emergency service. This will probably lead to the formation of an emergency service corps of senior Scouts who will receive special training. The service rendered by the corps will include such items as the protection of natural resources, locating lost persons, and rendering of first aid at accidents, etc.

Those attending the meeting were Carl Barker, P. D. Bean, Don F. Lauffer, Carl Rogers, Harold Gustlin, W. C. Dalton, Elton Davis and Calvin Hall.

Coach Leidig Seeking Replacements For Jamestown Game

Squad Working Hard For Starting Berths In Annual Grid Fray

Jacob B. Leidig, Warren High's veteran grid mentor, this week is attempting to solve one of the knottiest problems with which he has been confronted in his 28 years of tutoring local elevens.

With the annual Warren-Jamestown football classic only two days in the offing, Coach Leidig must find replacements for four of his regulars. Co-captain and Quarterback Joe Tamburine, Halfback Paul Zahranski and Tackles Vic Huffman and Bill Sperry who have reached the age of 19 and are therefore ineligible to play in the game, under a New York state ruling.

Although the mentor was still undecided on the reserve back who will fill Tamburine's shoes at the signal-barking position, the selection of a field general is the toughest job of all for Leidig because of the inexperience of the other backfield men. It is entirely possible, however, that R. G. "Spinner" Johnson, varsity fullback, may take over Tamburine's duties and that Mike Blech will be sent in at the fullback spot.

Floyd Landers is a sure thing for left halfback and it is probable that Rex Graham will start at Zahranski's usual berth. R. D. "Dick" Johnson will have the first call as backfield replacement if he recovers from a leg injury, with Dick Kifer, sophomore quarterback, also in the hold. Don Sharp, injured in the Oil City game, and Murray Anderson may also see action.

"Jungle Jim" Harding, hard-working pilot, will start at his regular position, flanked by Co-captain Walt Fredenicks and Dick North. North takes over George Niederer's guard spot. Niederer moving out to tackle. The other tackle spot will be filled by Myron Rydholm, reserve lineman. At the terminals will be Bob "Sting" Brown and Don Wolfe, the capable ends.

This lineup is tentative and may be influenced by developments at the tough practice sessions this afternoon and tomorrow. It is possible that Brown may go into the backfield with Jack Karl, first substitute end, stepping in on the flank.

The kickoff is scheduled for 2:30 with Warren and Jamestown bands putting on their usual demonstration before the game and during the half-time intermission.

There's Rejoicing in the Rhineland as Reds Win Series

There's nothing but jubilation evident in the Cincinnati clubhouse as the Reds celebrate the winning of their first world championship since 1919. Big Paul Derringer, who won the final game from Detroit, 2-1, is on Jimmy Wilson's shoulders in the center. In left foreground are Bill Werber and General Manager Warren Giles; at right is Mike McCormick.

Commission Appoints Deputy Protectors In Preparing For Season

Harrisburg, Oct. 10.—(AP)—The state game commission today completed the appointment of more than 600 deputy game protectors, augmenting its regular staff of 150 field wardens, in preparation for the opening of the fall hunting season.

"These men are being employed for various periods to assist the regular staff during the pre-season period, as well as during the regular season," said Executive Director Seth Gordon.

"We're trying to prevent any pre-season violations. Some fellows get too anxious with their trigger-fingers, and try a little warm-up shooting before the season opens."

The migratory game bird season opens Oct. 16 and extends through December 14, while the open season on small game extends through November.

The newly-hired field staff is posting and marking the boundaries of state game refuges, and repairing the protective fence wires. Hunters and dogs are banned from these refuges.

"The prospects are fair for the small game season," Gordon observed. "They're nothing to boast about, but satisfactory. There are some areas where the species are scarce, while the game is more plentiful in other areas."

Reports of the game wardens indicate ringneck pheasants and squirrels are generally more abundant, ruffed grouse and rabbits scarce in some localities, and quail "picking up," but not as abundant yet as in the fall of 1938.

The commission will meet Oct. 24 to decide on the hearings of referees in 105 cases from last season when hunters were called up for alleged violations and carelessness in the handling of firearms.

Sports Round-up

BY EDDIE BRIETZ

New York, Oct. 10.—(AP)—Well, ladies and gents, now that baseball is over, we can get down to the serious business of football. . . . Who was it said Notre Dame would murder Georgia Tech Saturday? . . . We don't believe it—we think those engineers from the deep South will give the Irish one of their toughest battles of the season. . . . And don't forget, your Uncle Charlie picked those Reds in six or seven games. . . . Did you know that Commissioner Landis gave Al Schacht (the friend of the man) a bad half hour for that Tony Galento bear stunt in the last game of the series? . . . Well, he did and if you don't believe Herr Schacht's ears are burning yet, ask him.

Sports Cocktail

The new ice carnival featuring Joe Cook, which Sonja Henie Topping and Art Wirtz, the rich Chicago sportsman, are backing, opens here tonight. Sonja isn't in it, but she'll shortly take the road with another troupe. . . . Tommy Bridges, the Detroit pitcher, who went to school at U. of Tennessee, received many fine twirling pointers from Maj. Bob Neyland, Tennessee's great football coach, who was quite a pitcher himself during his West Point days. . . . Good gosh, here's old Charlie Retzlaff doing another comeback out in the Northwest. . . . Know Gene Knapp, the drummer boy, don't you? Well, he sponsors and backs a soft ball team in Chicago's South Side and it's doing all right. . . .

Today's Guest Star

Tom Mean, New York P. M. "Of all the Dodgers who had such high hopes in the spring, Jimmy Rippel was the only one to get into the World's Series except as a spectator. . . . And he made it by way of Montreal."

Series Aftermath

After all, it's asking a lot of any pitcher to win three games in a World's Series, but the big Newsom almost made it, didn't he? . . . You can have your choice of the heroes, but Paul Derringer will take Jimmy Rippel for his. . . . Most amazed guy in the Reds' dressing room after the final was young Mike McCormick. "The kid couldn't bring himself to believe he was on a world's championship team. As the telegrams poured in, Mike could only mumble: 'Geez, I haven't seen or heard from in ten years. Say, this is a great life, ain't it?' . . . All the Reds agreed, of course. . . . Guess you noticed Billy Evans quit the Red Sox. Now watch him bob up as an owner in the American Association, as we told you three or four days ago."

Today's True Story

One of the brightest stars on one of North Carolina's big football teams had to take a history test to be eligible the next Saturday. . . . The prof. asked him one simple question, "What is the capital of North Carolina?" . . . "Pikeville," replied the guy. . . . "Well," said the academic, "if you had answered correctly you would have had 100. . . . Since Pikeville is only 15 miles from Raleigh, I will give you 85 and pass you. . . . (Two days later the fellow toted the mail, as usual.)"

LOCAL DOG COPS THIRD PLACE IN COUNTY TRIALS

Jail Bird, Chief of Police George Haechn's female setter, was the only Warren county dog to finish in the money during the annual running of the Warren County Field Trials over the weekend on the Lander course.

Jail Bird finished third in the Members' Shooting Dog Stake behind Lycoming Don, male pointer owned by C. M. Balliett, of Williamsport, and Ray's Jokers' Beauty, female pointer owned by C. A. Rugg, of Jamestown.

In the Open Puppy Stake, Madam Grace, pointer owned by T. L. Esau and M. S. Spahr, of Warren, Ohio; Sam R's Tornado, male setter owned by Sam Light of Punxsutawney, and Ann B. setter owned by H. M. Wilson, Jr., of Franklin, finished in that order.

Tex's Village Hank, male pointer belonging to the Warren, Ohio men and their Tex's Keystone Hank, pointer, finished first and third in the Open Derby Stake, with Sky Rocket's Honest Abe, owned by Forrest Galloway, of Grove City, finishing third.

In the Open All-Age Stake, Dixie's Village Queen, female pointer owned by K. S. Lorch, of Bradford, was first, followed by Airway, male pointer owned by R. K. Palmerton, of Geneva, N. Y., and McEubbs, male pointer owned by Charles Elder, of Jersey Shore.

SPORT SCATTERINGS

Johnny Fetzek, 20-year-old ace hurler of the Ludlow Wildcats during the 1938 and 1939 seasons has been signed to hurl for the London, Ont. team of the Pony League and will report to the training quarters of the Baby Pirates next spring. Fetzek, who had a great season with the Camp Hunt Run team, and his battery mate, Pete Jarzen, were picked on an All-Star team and so impressed scouts that each received a contract and the promise of a tryout with the Buccos. Besides having a nifty fast ball and curve, Fetzek possesses a keen batting eye and when not taking his turn can double in the outfield. "Happy Days," national CCC publication, devoted considerable space to Fetzek and Jarzen in a recent issue.

This idea of dedicating a game to "Rock" is a swell idea, and we're glad the Jackets have stepped along with other teams in the nation in so doing. By the way, we have heard some fine reports on "Knute Rockne—All American" which opens at the Library Theatre Sunday, those who have seen the film confiding that it's a picture not only for football fans but for every member of the family. The picture, fortunately, makes no attempt at plot or story-building as do so many biographical movies, but tells the simple tale of Rockne from his childhood in Norway to his tragic death at the height of his fame. All of the Rockneana which is a-b-c to every schoolkid is included in the film, including the "Win This One For Gipp" episode. As Harry Keck wrote following the pre-view, "It's a touchdown for Hollywood." Every time you see a "new" trick play, a forward pass, a lateral or a variation of the famous Notre Dame shift, you are looking at another monument to "Rock," but after you see this story of his life, you'll find there was more than just football and coaching in the life of this "All-American."

We have before us the weight sheet of the Trafford club, and it would appear that the A. C. has a line that may give the Jacket wall its first major test. In the three games played thus far, the red-clad line has been impregnable, but we note that Trafford's advance guard boasts the following men with this poundage: Elmer Merkosky, 220; Joe Lonoconus, 220; Charley Kroedvilla, 200; Lurchan, 200; Anthony, 220; Bohence, 220. In the backfield they will have Fedorchak at 200, Elliott at 190, Red Polrek at 189 and Bert Snyder at 175. That they have a good line is evidenced by the season's scoring in which only one touchdown has been charged against them in four games, while they have scored 75 points. Until Trafford was edged out 7-6 by Garfield, the club was favored to take the Greater Pittsburgh Crown, but as it stands now they'll have to trample the McKeesport Olympics for a three-way tie.

YEARS AGO IN SPORT

October 10, 1920—Warren High lost its first game played on foreign soil Saturday when Kane defeated the locals, 20 to 9. The first touchdown was scored when Dick Elliott fumbled and Byham picked up the loose ball and raced 44 yards. "Chicken" Young skirted the Warren left end for 66 yards for another and then caught a ten-yard pass for the third one. Joe Haumesser scored Warren's only touchdown. Art Dahl missed the point. Lloyd Woodard kicked a field goal from the 25 yard line for Warren's other three points.

October 10, 1939—The Warren soccer team has been invited to play in the Jamestown City Cup tourney and will meet Scandia A. C. there on Sunday. Warren's team is composed of Bert Lawton, Bergquist and Carlson, Wolfe, Berglund and Vicklund, Eckstrom, Berger, Palmer and Palmquist. The Scandias and Warren have played very close games all season.

NITTANY FULLBACKS ON HOSPITAL LIST

State College, Pa., Oct. 10.—(AP)—There will be at least one new face in the Penn State lineup Saturday when the Nittany Lions meet West Virginia University, but who it will be even Coach Bob Higgins doesn't know.

Bill Smeltz, regular fullback and Ralph E. Ventresco, his understudy, are in the college infirmary nursing leg injuries and Higgins is virtually without a kicker and passer. Earl Brown, stocky Cazenovia, N. Y., sophomore, probably will get the starting assignment, if his early-season injury mends.

PORT ALLEGANY AT SHEFFIELD SATURDAY

Sheffield, Oct. 10.—Resuming a brief football rivalry that was interrupted 10 years ago after three or four games had been played, Sheffield High's Wolverines battle the Port Allegany Hi team in a game to be played here this Saturday afternoon.

TRAFFORD SIGNS FOUR STARS TO BOLSTER LINEUP

The following item from the sports section of the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph will be of interest to Warren football fans planning to attend next Sunday's clash between the Red Jackets and Trafford A. C. at Russell Field.

"Trafford, the team ravalling the McKeesport Olympics for the No. 1 ranking in the Greater Pittsburgh semi-pro football circles, this week fortified its squad with several former Duquesne and Pitt University stars.

"Johnny Fedorchak, Joe Lonoconus, and Geno Onder, all former Duquesne players, and Elmer Merkosky, a lineman at Pitt, are among the Trafford regulars."

Fedorchak, 200-pound fullback, and Lonoconus and Merkovsky, 220-pound tackles, will add beef to Trafford's already heavy line, while Onder's speed will improve the A. C.'s offensive.

Trafford has played four games this season, winning all but last Sunday's when they were dropped by the Garfield Eagles, third contender for the Pittsburgh title, 7 to 6.

Their other victories were over Mt. Oliver 16 to 0, Creighton Tigers, 34 to 0 and Glassport 19 to 0.

Next Sunday's game has been dedicated to the late Knute Rockne, Notre Dame coach, similar to the custom in communities

The Times Square Service Station bowlers scored a clean sweep for the second time last night in the Leading Knights division of the Elks circuit and took a two-game lead over the South Side Markets, who were taking three from the Soda Minerals. . . . Times Square's four-point victory over the Turner Radio kept the 1,000 average intact. . . . Other clean sweeps were registered by the Lewis Markets over the Garland Inn and the Hoagvall Hardware over Simonsen's Insurance. . . . Howard Potts, of league-leaders, had both high game and high total with 225 and 582.

The Conewango Club had its weekly double-shift night and Chuck Young led his team into first place with a whitewash of Johnny Allen's boys. . . . Young, last season's high average man, rolled 21 in his first game to hit the honor roll and finished with a 596 total. . . . In the other match, Creed Erickson's reglers won the first two games from the Millers by fifty pins, but fell down in the last game and nosed out Ernie's pinners by three pins in the total. . . . Professor Clyde Knapp returned to the wars for the Allens and wheeled his smoke ball in a style that caused his captain to rub his hands in glee. . . . Just like Jimmy Wilson's comeback in the series was the general feeling. . . . Monty McClure made his debut with the Ericksons and exhibited a hook ball that needs only a little seasoning. . . . Captain Erickson stated that he will keep McClure with the team, rather than farm him to the minors.

At the Arcade Struthers-Wells held the spotlight. . . . With every match a four-point win, the Heaters moved into top spot, with Foreman "B", the victims, dropping into second place. . . . Plate Floor and Foreman "A" got hot and are in a tie for third place while Machine Shop's win by forfeit over Process moved them out of cellar and well on the way to the first division. . . . "Sport" Stanton, of Foreman "A" hit 241 and 603 to lead the individual rankings. . . . His team set new team game and total marks of 928 and 2,555.

A small spade was led and North won with the king, then cashed the nine of clubs, played a small spade and finessed the seven-spot. West won with the ten and returned a heart. Dummy won and cashed the queen of clubs and another spade was played. West had to win with the ace and return a diamond, declarer jumped up with the ace and cashed his fourth spade for the ninth trick.

for permitting party leaders to reconvene the chamber in an emergency.

Speaker Rayburn accordingly announced yesterday that "the house will stay in session from day to day and see what works out."

The situation in the senate was only slightly less complex. However, Majority Leader Barkley of Kentucky stated that an attempt would be made to take a recess there from Friday until Monday, then from Monday or Thursday, and so on until November 18.

Confer On Foreign Situation

The secretary said that all of the national radio chains would carry Mr. Roosevelt's hemisphere defense message from Dayton and that they would short wave it to South America both in the voice of the president and in a Spanish translation later. As to whether the address would be broadcast to Europe also, he said that was up to the broadcasting companies.

Early outlined the itinerary of the trip beginning late tonight as Washington, Johnstown, Pittsburgh, Youngstown, Ohio, Newton Falls, Akron, Columbus, Dayton and return to Washington.

No suspicion of any defense or industrial facilities is planned at Johnstown.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 10.—(AP)—A steel worker's family of five, who never thought they'd get to see the president, was elated today over the prospect of receiving from Mr. Roosevelt personally tomorrow the keys for their apartment in a new $13,800,000 federal slum clearance project.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Churchfield and their three children, of the city's northside section, were chosen for the ceremony because of being the 100,000 family to occupy a U. S. Housing Authority unit.

The scene will be Terrace Village, a cluster of modern apartment buildings to house 2,636 families on a hill close to the downtown Pittsburgh business district.

The president will dedicate the project—second largest in the nation—a while on a trip through western Pennsylvania and Ohio to inspect defense facilities and federal projects. He starts from Washington at midnight tonight on his special train.

TIMES TOPICSNEAR COMPLETION

Work on the rebuilding of the church at Starbuck will be completed this week, it was announced today by E. F. Armstrong, missionary of the American Sunday School Union. Much credit, he said, is due the contractors, Thoreson and Fargnworth, of Warren, for the short time required to do this work. The dedication of this chapel will take place on Sunday, October 27th. The morning service will be in the form of a Rally Day program, with former missionaries in attendance. The dedication service will be in the afternoon. The Rev. Frank Kehl, superintendent of the American Sunday School Union, will be present at both services.

REGULAR SERIES

British war refugee children on the side of the Atlantic talking to their parents in London is to be made a regular series on the WEAF-NBC network, according to the Associated Press. Programs are to be set up every other week as part of the war broadcast period at 7:15 p. m. Discussion to make this a regular feature came as the result of a special program arranged at the last moment Monday evening in which a half dozen or so British children in the New York Studios held two-way conversations with their parents in the BBC studios in London. The program, of a type that tugged at the heartstrings, brought an unusual favorable listener response.

British Quitting Rumania

man and powers friendly to the Axis have been informed that others are to follow. They said an official statement was expected to be issued soon.

An official announcement said that German-Rumanian economic talks would begin in Berlin Oct. 18. The German language press offered a violent anti-British campaign.

The Tageblatt, generally considered inspired by the German legation, devoted columns to the British-Rumanian "impasse."

The German language press also said Britain was considering setting up opposition "Rumanian government" in London.

Sources close to the British legation said departure of all British citizens from Rumania "appears to be only a matter of a few days."

Although reluctant to abandon their $200,000,000 investment in the much Rumanian oil fields and their most important "listening post" in the Balkans, the British admittedly were apprehensive of being trapped by the advancing Nazis if they hesitated too long.

New York Oct. 10.—(P)—The Berlin radio broadcast a Bucharest dispatch today asserting it was officially announced that deliveries of Rumanian oil to Turkey and Greece were to be discontinued. No reason for the move was given.

Fire Prevention Week Ends Friday Night With Local Demonstration; Essay Prizes Will Be Presented

Fire Prevention Week in Warren will close tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock when prizes for the best fire prevention essays, which have been written by pupils in the local schools, will be awarded. Following the awarding of the essay prizes, a demonstration of fire equipment will be given. These events will be held on Pennsylvania avenue, between Second and Hickory streets. Through the courtesy of Burgess R. W. Steber and Police Chief George Hach, the area will be kept clear of automobiles and the street roped off during the demonstration. It was announced today. Since the demonstration given during Fire Prevention Week in 1939, numerous requests have been received to repeat the practice this year, and a plan has been worked out to make this possible, according to Fire Chief Douglas G. Kropp. In 1939 the fire department showed the heavy stream and high pressure appliances of the department in action. The No. 1 shift of firemen demonstrated these appliances. This year the No. 2 shift of firemen will demonstrate hose lines, nozzles for hand lines, cellar pipes and distributors and the knots used by firemen in rescue work and hoisting equipment. A loud speaker system will be provided to enable the work of the firemen to be explained to the spectators as the different appliances are used. While this demonstration is taking place, the off-duty shift of the fire department will be on duty in the Central Station with the apparatus of two local engine companies and an engine company from Youngsville, which is being furnished through the courtesy of Chief L. L. Johnson, and the fire department of the neighboring borough. This will provide ample protection while the other apparatus is at the demonstration, Chief Kropp said.

Danger of Special Fire Hazards

IN many factories the process of manufacture develops special fire hazards peculiar to that industry alone. Research activities are necessary to discover the destructive possibilities before disaster overtakes the plant. Take these steps now, before it's too late.
